Meteorologist Ashley Meenen and Anchor Marshanna Hester spent a day finding out what to do for fun in Wamego.

Meteorologist Ashley Meenen and Anchor Marshanna Hester spent a day find out what fun things there are to do in Wamego. They began their day at the Columbian Theatre visiting the Patti Page exhibit.

Their next stop was the OZ Winery where they checked out some of the fun, OZ themed labels. They learned all of the wine is made in the building and the top seller is Witch in a Ditch.

After the OZ Winery, they made a trip to the OZ Museum, offers about 4,000 artifacts from about 1900 to present.

While at the OZ Museum, all of the "Totos" gave them an idea for lunch. They headed to Toto's Taco, which had great food with fun, OZ themed names.

Before ending the day they stopped at a second winery, Vin Vivante, in Wamego. They learned Wamego is the only town in Kansas that offers two wineries.
